

SAVE THE DATE
16TH & 17TH OCT 2019

GROWING IN A CLIMATE OF CHANGE CONFERENCE

1 DAY CONFERENCE
FOLLOWED BY A ½ DAY FIELD DAY

6 INTERNATIONAL SPEAKERS

KEY NOTE SPEAKER

Christy Hoeping - Extension Vegetable Specialist. Specialising in onions, Stemphyllium control measures, Pink Root, Smut & Fusarium.

Conference Topics: Stemphyllium leaf blight and other onion diseases
Cornell University, USA

Dr Calum Wilson PhD, MSc (Distn), BSc (Hons), Professor in Plant Pathology.

Dr Wilson's research portfolio is diverse with work across a range of plant pathogens and crops.

Conference Topics: Powdery scab and soil diseases
Tasmania Institute of Agriculture, Australia

Howard Hinds - Consultant. Providing independent consultancy services for carrot and diseases and disease modelling parsnip and potato crops.

Conference Topics: Carrot diseases and Disease Modelling
Root Crop Consultancy Ltd, United Kingdom

John I Keer BSc, PhD - Technical Manager. Specialising in Crop nutrition, protection and soil management.

Conference Topics: PCN and Potato diseases
Richard Austin Agriculture Ltd, United Kingdom

Dick Neale - Technical Manager specialising in grass weed control, crop establishment, cultivations and crop nutrition and integration with precision farming techniques.

Conference Topics: Getter the right break crop/How healthy is your soil
Hutchinsons Crop Protection, United Kingdom

Dr Len Tesoriero BSc, MSc, PhD - Senior Plant Pathologist. 30 years experience in diagnosing plant health problems and conducting disease management.

Conference Topics: Baby spinach and lettuce soil-borne disease management and Sclerotinia control
University of Sydney, Australia

Bronwyn Braithwaite BHortSc (Hons) - Laboratory Manager, Crop Consultant
Bronwyn will be conducting a separate workshop on the day

Topic: Brassica blackrot
Plant Diagnostics, Christchurch

Venue

Pukekohe Cosmopolitan Club

The conference will be attended by growers, supply companies and vegetable related industry representatives.

REGISTER NOW VIA OUR WEBSITE WWW.INTA-AG.CO.NZ